STEGEMAN COLISEUM

Georgia volleyball will play every 2019 home match in Stegeman Coliseum. The volleyball team opened the newly-renovated arena on Oct. 11, 2017 with a match against Tennessee. The most recent renovation, completed in September of 2017, was highlighted by a center-hung video board along with other improvements including new seats, an LED lighting system, and an all-new sound system.

Christened in 1964 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

Stegeman has undergone thorough renovations in the last few years, receiving a 21st Century face lift. When fans arrived for the start of the 2017 season, they walked in to the final product following more than $20 million in renovations over the past several years.

That summer, the arena received a massive center-hung video board, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in the summer of 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.
In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and rest rooms and adding 5,000 square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

The new center-hung video board greets Georgia fans and is the focal point to the newly-renovated Stegeman Coliseum.

Stegeman Coliseum served as the site for preliminary volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics during the 1996 Atlanta Olympics.

RAMSEY CENTER

The team video room located in the coaches office suite is an ideal location to break down film and hold team meetings.

Georgia's $40 million Bernard B. and Eugenia A. Ramsey Student Physical Activities Center is where the Georgia Bulldogs volleyball team is housed. One of the nation's largest on-campus facility for recreation and fitness, the Ramsey Center, features a three-court volleyball arena and amenities that are all utilized by the Bulldogs for practices and competition. The Ramsey Center encompasses 440,000 square feet - UGA's Sanford Stadium could fit inside the center's more than five-acre footprint - and the variety offered is as vast as the area covered. Four gymnasia, three swimming pools, seven group fitness studios, climbing and bouldering walls, an indoor challenge course, 10 racquetball courts, two international squash courts, two strength and conditioning rooms, four cardiovascular overlooks, a one-eighth-mile indoor track, equipment checkout and Pro Shop, an outdoor equipment rental and resource center are all available under one roof.

The first volleyball match played in the Ramsey Center was on Sept. 22, 1995. Prior to playing in the Ramsey Center, the Bulldogs' home volleyball matches were held in the Women's Physical Education Building. With a seating capacity of 1,925, the Ramsey Center Volleyball Arena produces a lively environment featuring the Redcoat Pep Band, UGA Cheerleaders and Georgia mascot Spike!

During the summer of 2009, new additions were added to the volleyball area of the Ramsey Center with the program's coaches moving into new offices along with the addition of a theatre-style team video and scouting room, a new training room, a new visitor's locker room and a players' lounge that features a sitting area, a wi-fi bar and a nutrition station.

Named the best recreational facility in the country by Sports Illustrated in 1997, the Ramsey Center is a constant reminder of the University of Georgia's commitment to athletic excellence and the realization of what is required to achieve greatness.

Murals and wall graphics throughout the facility highlight the history of Georgia volleyball including All-Americans and All-SEC performers.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

UGA

Uga has established himself as the nation's best mascot, according to Sports Illustrated. Uga X, also known as Que, was collared during the 2015 football season.

THE ARCH

Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice and moderation.

CHAPEL BELL

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues today even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore.

THE LONE TRUMPETER

A solo Redcoat Marching Band member plays the first 14 notes of the Battle Hymn of the Bulldog Nation prior to every home football game.

TOM BLACK

15TH SEASON OVERALL (279-141)
THIRD SEASON AT GEORGIA (37-26)

The 2019 Georgia volleyball season will be the third under the direction of head coach Tom Black.

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs finish over .500 for the second-straight season. The 2017 and 2018 seasons were the first back-to-back winning seasons since 2008 and 2009. Georgia concluded the 2018 campaign with a 15-14 overall record. The season began on a seven-match winning streak capped by a four-set victory over #24 Colorado on the Buffs' home court. It was the first win over a ranked opponent since 2013. The non-conference slate ended with a 9-2 record.

Georgia concluded SEC play with a 6-12 record, finishing ninth. Georgia was tested early in league play, playing five, five-setters in the first six matches. In the Oct. 7 match at #11 Florida, the Bulldogs took the then-undefeated Gators to five sets, including leading the match, 2-1. It was the first time Georgia had taken a set from Florida since 2010, snapping a 12-match sweep streak by the Gators.

In February 2019, Black was named the head coach of the Canadian Women's National Team. Volleyball Canada won the FIVB Women's Challenger in Lima, Peru in June, qualifying for the Nations League Tournament in 2020.

In his first season at the helm, Black took a Georgia team that had one Southeastern Conference win in two seasons to a fifth-place finish in the league. The Bulldogs concluded the 2017 campaign with a 22-12 overall record and a 10-8 SEC clip. Finishing fifth, the Bulldogs clinched an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), advancing to the semifinal round.

Under Black's instruction, the 2017 team finished second in the SEC in kills per set (13.75), fourth in hitting percentage (.243), and first in aces per set (1.57). In all, the Bulldogs finished in the top four of every offensive category in the conference. In RPI, Georgia made one of the greatest turnarounds from the prior season, jumping 132 spots to 57.

Black, an accomplished collegiate and international coach, was named the seventh head coach of the Georgia volleyball program in December of 2016.

Black came to Athens with 12 years of NCAA collegiate head coaching experience with time at UC San Diego and Loyola Marymount, accumulating a career record of 242-115 after posting six seasons with 20-plus wins.

Working with some of the top athletes in the country, Black has been extremely active with the U.S. Women's National Team over the last few years, working alongside U.S. head coach Karch Kiraly. Black most recently served on the staff at the 2016 Rio Olympic games as an assistant coach, as the United States garnered a bronze medal.

Black spent the last seven seasons at Loyola Marymount, leading the Lions to 127 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2015 after upsetting No. 13 Colorado State and No. 6 Stanford. His team notched back-to-back 20-wins seasons in 2014 and 2015. In 2014, the Lions entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll at No. 23 and held a national ranking for five weeks.

During his stint, 21 student-athletes earned All-West Coast Conference honors while he oversaw four AVCA All-America selections and six AVCA All-Region picks. Black saw one of his players earn the WCC Defensive Player of the Year in four of the last six years while also garnering AVCA Region Freshman of the Year in 2014.

Prior to LMU, Black served at the helm of Division II UC San Diego women's team for five seasons. Black went 115-29 with the Tritons and had his team ranked in the AVCA national poll every week for his final four seasons. UCSD ranked as high as No. 2 in 2009 while finishing in the top 10 in two seasons. The 2006 Tachikara/AVCA D-II Pacific Region Coach of the Year, Black coached 20 All-Conference honorees as well as four All-America selections.

Black is heavily involved with the U.S. Women's National Team, culminating in his selection as an assistant coach with the team in March of 2013. Black was with the team at the 2016 Rio Olympics, helping guide the United States to a bronze medal. Black also assisted with Team USA prior to the team winning its first world championship gold medal at the FIVB World Championship in October 2014 while the team went on to win the 2015 World Grand Prix Championship and a Bronze Medal at the World Cup.

Before being named as an assistant within the program, Black spent three consecutive summers as a consultant coach as the National Team prepared for the 2012 London Games.

Prior to his time at UCSD, Black spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the men's volleyball program at USC. He also served as the men's head coach at Pierce Junior College and Thousand Oaks High School as well as an assistant for Pierce Junior College's women's team and Royal High School's boy's team.

Black received his bachelor's degree in political science from UCSD in 1996 where he was also a four-year letterwinner, setting numerous hitting records and earning All-MPSF honorable mention honors as a senior in 1996. The California native was Volleyball Magazine's Small College Player of the Year in 1996, while also earning Small College All-America honors that same year.

Black and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Kylin and Emerson.

Tom Black was named the seventh head coach of Georgia Women's Volleyball on Dec. 22, 2016.

TOM BLACK ON... THE NEWCOMERS

Coach Black on Kaylah House…
"We are thrilled to bring Kaylah home to Georgia and have her play her final two years in the Red and Black. Kaylah brings an athleticism that can help our team in multiple positions. Even more than that, who she is as a person really impressed us. She has the character of a great teammate. Her commitment was an exciting day for us, and we are just as committed to developing her impressive potential. Kaylah House just made our program better."

Coach Black on Kacie Evans…
"Kacie has well established herself as one of the country's elite outside hitters at the junior level. Her coaches have done a great job developing and guiding her. She is a 6-rotation player who hits a heavy ball on the pin and will fight to her last breath. Kacie doesn't ask for breaks, she doesn't talk about how tired she is, she doesn't complain; she just asks how she can get better and how she can help more. Beyond that, when you watch Kacie play you see someone who is truly having fun. The sky is the limit for Kacie."

Coach Black on Alexa Fortin…
"Alexa is a dynamic, exciting setter to watch. She has shown an excellent ability to run an offense at a speed similar to ours, and her confidence and steadiness makes the people around her better. She is an offensive setter but she also knows how to balance that with the primary responsibility of putting your hitters in a position to score. She loves to compete, will stay in the gym all day long, and has been well coached throughout her career. We are thrilled to add Alexa to our program."

Coach Black on Meghan Froemming…
"Meg is a competitor who has the ability to play hard and play smart. Her work in the classroom is indicative of how smart she plays and her will to compete is evident as soon as you watch her. You will never have to ask Meg to work harder, nor will anyone ever question her passion. She has a powerful arm which can score in multiple positions for us. Meghan will help our team and represent UGA incredibly well over the course of her college career."

Coach Black on Londyn Gray…
"Londyn is a smart and tough kid who just keeps getting better every year. Each year she arrived at our camp, her skill set was greatly improved, and it was evident to us as a staff how badly she wanted this and how driven she was to constantly improve. She can hit a variety of sets in front and behind the setter and her eye work is at a really good level for a player her age. As excited as we are for Londyn to get here, we're even more excited for what she will be at the end of her career here. We can say this because we know the work and intensity she will bring each day she's here."

IT JUST MEANS MORE.

BULLDOGS SUCCEED AFTER GEORGIA

Life after Georgia has seen many volleyball alumni excel at the highest level. From Olympians in Elizabeth Reid and Alexandra Oquendo to playing professionally like Kathleen Gates, Bulldogs continue to succeed on the court. Some have taken to the sideline -- Jenny McDowell has led Emory volleyball to great heights as its head coach while Priscilla Pacheco has coached the sport on many levels, most recently at Arizona State on the beach. Maria Taylor has found her spot on the crew for ESPN's College GameDay and ABC Saturday Night Football games.

Whether it's in sports, in the community or out in the workforce, Georgia alumni continue to make a difference. These former Bulldogs have proven that at the University of Georgia and in the SEC, it just means more.
